Lakeland, FL 33801

Closure Date: 08/14/2009

Notes: Florida Southern College (FSC) reported the closure of their Orlando site (6035 South Rio Avenue) on their recent electronic application. The building's lease had expired and the last day of instruction was held on June 26, 2009. On June 27, 2009, 100 students and faculty were moved from the closed site to an alternate location (approximately 4 miles away) at Pine Castle Christian Academy (PCCA), a private high school located at 5933 Randolph Drive, Orlando, Florida. The reason for the move was to continue teaching the classes the students were enrolled in for the remainder of the 2008-2009 academic year, which just ended on August 14, 2009.

PCCA was intended to be only of a temporary nature with no classes offered beyond August 14, 2009. Although FSC acted timely in reporting an end date for their Orlando location (OPEID# 00148801), the U.S. Department of Education (Department) was not notified of the address change, which FSC should have reported via the electronic application process. According to Mr. Michael Johnson, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, FSC notified the accrediting agency of the closure of the Orlando site, but not the usage of the PCCA classroom space.

The Department had not approved PCCA as an eligible location. According to Mr. William Healy, the school's Financial Aid Director, Title IV funds had been disbursed to 13 students for courses taken at PCCA. FSC ceased providing instruction at PCCA on August 14, 2009.

Student Arrangements: 100 students and faculty were moved from the school's closed Orlando site (6035 South Rio Avenue) to Pine Castle Christian Academy (an unauthorized location) to complete the remainder of the 2008-2009 academic year.
