

We encourage all governors and or designated state officials to honor their nominee (s). Below are some suggested ways to honor your classified employees.

- Provide their nominees with a congratulatory letter.
- Include their “National Honoree” and/or their RISE selected nominee (s) in annual professional development ie: workshops, seminars, conferences, training, cross-state, district team building, speaking engagements with state Governor and or designated state or district official for a meet and greet.